BalFirmary - May 27, 2015, 2:24 pm

It's funny how he mentions this on a thread which has been deleted couple of days ago! LEL.

EDIT: On his profile he does mention that he doesn't have skype.
Reading the replies below me is showing that who you dealt with is an imposter. :/

this is real honey singh, but the one being accused is fake.

BITW - May 28, 2015, 12:42 am

I just thought you got scammed by an imposter. This is really sad. open an unauthorized transaction dispute. Also as far as i know Honey Singh has skype but he does not deal there for sure. He accept exchange req only @ HF so you are scammed by an Imposter I believe.

Hope this get shorted soon.

Hope we gonna find a solution men ;)Read my PM's man, my PayPal is fucked, I have to cover your losses, I have $500 locked for 180 days and I have lost my source of income of $3k+/month.

I want at least half of it paid in Bitcoin, and then I'll be overly reasonable and call it end of story, even though the damages that's been caused.

I'm in contact with OP trying to solve this case.
