Yes I understand this, but there is literally no way to scam with btc lol, Im going first and obviously your going to wait for some confirmations first.....

You should know this as a exchanger, I could understand not doing PP to BTC but BTC to PP? Like really man?

I legit just need this cash for tickets to movies tomorrow, what ever you need me to do to prove authenticity I can do lol, but theres not really much to show with btc seeing as its literally irreversible.
