Tried scammed me for a BTC but i didnt give in and go first so im good :D!

also neutral repped the acc. Will change it if you get it sorted :

Just noticed the trust scan says the latest ip matches another user. So im guessing a HF user hacked you and logged on the same IP as his own acc but on yours.

GL getting your account back. Yes, I was a fool and fell for a silly scam.

Hopefully omni temp bans my account soon and I can recover.

He should be kicked from the group to prevent sub-forum leakage.

OP, best of luck sorting this, dude. Must be frustrating.

TEMP_1671010 - May 28, 2015, 9:35 am

I have sent a account form which is handled by factor8

I am just angry with myself for falling for such a stupid scam.

I pride myself on being pretty tech savy. This guy will get what is coming to him.

Envy - May 28, 2015, 11:54 am

Well I hope you refund the members who got scammed due to you falling for a scam yourself.

Gladly - May 28, 2015, 11:55 am
