So I went on to purchase this fuck boys steam account, it had csgo on it and bunch of other games. It was in russian, therefore I couldn't play it due to some region locking bullshit. I asked him for a refund, he said ok. Told me to send him back the OG email + steam account. I did that, then he deletes me. Nice $6 scam, finna turn up with that cashout money ayy.

i'll refund you ONLY IF (1) return my Steam acc and promise not to hack it, (2) send me $0.20 BTC (consider it a transaction fee for refunding)"

LMAO i felt really bad, so i sent the 0.20 btc too xD. He seems really poor

You never returned my Steam account. You retrieved it right after and started lagging me on Skype.

I already told you it was RU too. What are you going to say now? "Ayyy lmfao?" No, dumb ass.
