Anyone been reading or watching Blood Lad? I've bought the first book and was debating about buying the next ?

Is this new:O? I've never heard of it but the name alone sounds intriguing!

Yeah basically its about a descendant of Dracula who lives in the demon world and is obsessed with human life, girls, Japanese culture in the human world etc and one day a human girl appears out of know where in the demon world, gets killed and pretty much the vamp swears he will find a way to make her human again
