Thread: [Building My Portfolio \[FREE\]](#)

Abhax - May 30, 2015, 2:49 pm

General Information:

I am currently searching for users who are willing to help me expand my portfolio! It's 100% completely free as long as I can use your graphics within my portfolio for future jobs or as a possible example of my work. By submitting a request for me to do your graphic design you agree that I have permission to do so with your finalized graphics. Not all users will be accepted for free graphics and I have the right to choose which users I would prefer to design for. However I would love to hear your request!

What am I using to create graphics?

I am using Photoshop CS6 to create my graphics, So no vectors here sadly.

What am I willing to design?Logos (500 x 500)

Backgrounds (Any)

Signatures (650 x 200)

Banners (Any)

How to place a request:

You can place a graphics request by using the following layout (if needed).What are you requesting? (Logo, Banner, Sig, Etc...)

What you would like the text to say

What colors you want to be used

If you would like a specific font

What format: (JPG, PNG, GIF)

Additional Information

How do I place a request?

You can place a graphics request by posting below!

Or by contacting me via Skype, My user name is abhaxllc

Conclusion:

Please remember graphic design takes time, I will try my best to finish your products in a timely manner however I also run an electronics business so your graphics may be delayed if I get busy. But they WILL be done.

Forum Channel Banner - What people would see when they check out the channel. As to what the banner could be, I'm open for discussion. I would want impressions and suggestions, but overall similar to the channel theme.

Thumbnail Pictures - I would want a small vertical bar that would be along the right side of the thumbnail, in a few different colours. It would tell viewers and subscribers what kind of video it is.

Possible 10 second video clip - When people click on videos, they see a small excerpt sound play. I'm hoping to get a updated sound and intro, so people know what to expect when they see videos.

"Title card" - This could possibly become part of the video clip, once again it shows the link to the channel and can give external return address if anyone sees the video on another website.
