Thread: The New Breed of Twitch \(repping hackforums all day\)

theRealShookKon3 - June 4, 2015, 1:33 am

Ayo! First off, big thanks to every one of you who took time from your life to help bring mine to. None if this is even possible without you guys, for real. I'm including everyone, from the homie GreenVenom for introducing me to ya'll, to one who kept typing h4x0r-1337-matrix-in-arabic code that was actually dope, to the dude who cleared the chat for 45 min straight, to homies like Sam who keep comin back and riding with Mod City!

And so, I clipped this 5 min highlight of the dopest freestyle I've ever spit, and shout out hackforums.com and how WE RIDE ON OUR ENEMIES! And Then I posted it on reddit, and it's currently #2 in the entertainment section! So I wanted to invite any and all of those who think this is even just a fraction of how dope I think this is, to feel free to help +1 the topic. I ride for HackForums, all day, either way. See ya'll tom night!

I can't post a link on the forums until I get 50 points of ballerness either, so if someone with 50+ can post the link to the reddit.com/r/entertainment/ section and help a nerd out, I would be in debt to you!!
