Thread: Chameleon rims \(UPDATED W/ PICS // 370z\) \(UPDATED X2\)

Sharjah - June 7, 2015, 11:04 pm

Update: I have decided to go with Green/Blue on my rims

Will post the results when I get my spray cans

What do you guys think about chameleon rims? I might do this to my Z pretty soon.

There are obviously different colors, but I've never seen these when roaming the streets. What do u guys think?

Black 370z

Was planning on getting the first one done consiering I have Ti Tips on my car, so I feel like if I had some sort of twist on my rims rather than it just being a full on blue, then it'd look nice with my Ti Tips

Pics of my car (blacked out all personal information of mine):

Are you trying to look like a ricer or a chimp Black?

Unless it looks like absolute fuck.. Then I would need to respray all my rims back to a black graphite metalizer

It looks corny to me. All you would need next is a "I<3MyJDM" sticker for it to turn into a pile of shit.

You don't think the first pic would look pretty nice on a black base car? I understand the last few images were kinda eh, but the first one is what I was planning on getting

-GodLike- - June 7, 2015, 11:30 pm

I think they look great but it depends on your car color

Green? They look trash to me. Black rims or the color you mentioned in the bottom of the thread is what I like.

I like the color you have, but at the end it's up to you.

I can't force you to not look like a fag???got.

Heart - June 7, 2015, 11:52 pm

You should definitely do purple rims with white brake calipers, drop the chameleon shit.

Sharjah - June 8, 2015, 11:39 am

Forgot to mention that I have Ti Tips on my exhaust.

You obviously want them and using this thread to show off. Just fucking do it.

Looool. I do want them, but I need a voice. You were the only voice so far and it was negative. If people say it is actually shitty compared to what I have right now, then I won't be doing it no matter how much I wanna try it.

So you want hear only positive opinions that reaffirm your want?

??? ? - June 8, 2015, 11:52 am

Damn those look really nice, hope to see pics when you get those rims.

No, that's not what I said. If I don't get any positive outlooks on the rims, then I simply won't do it. I've had this blacked out look for some months, so I wanna try something different, however, due to the fact I drive this car basically every day, I got tired of this look, but to some people, they might find it really nice at the first few looks at it (if that makes any sense). Basically, this look is old to me and I wanna try something new since I don't think it looks nice anymore, but that just might be because I see it every day.

Sometimes classic designs are better than trendy fads.

I don't think the chameleon rims are trendy at all. I have yet to see them anywhere on the streets. I've only seen them a couple times on the streets with the whole car dipped. But yeah, the murdered out look definitely appealed a lot to me in the eye the first time I did it and thought I'd keep it forever, but I am wanting something new, but then again, don't want it to look shit and have to respray my rims.

TM88 - June 8, 2015, 11:57 am

I won't ever smoke weed in my car. The only thing I will ever do is vape in there. And that's only because it makes my car smell really fucking good afterwards.

sick ricer tips on your exhaust

Clam - June 8, 2015, 12:00 pm

Do what you want to your car and what you think looks good. Why else would you even modify it? All about personal preference my man, there's always gonna be someone to call your car ricey even if others say it's clean. That's the beauty of the car community.

yea im kidding, i think rims like that would look sick on your car

Vobe - June 8, 2015, 1:10 pm

I fucking love this car.

My plan this summer is to save up for it. My parents said they'd match me whatever I come up with.

Where you located at if you don't mind me asking?

UnParad0x - June 8, 2015, 1:13 pm

cono flacko, nice car. Love the black on black, I'm a huge fan of chameleon rims and they would look sick on your ride in my opinion

Then do it homey! I think it'd look pretty cool. It's rad you have a 370z

Snipist - June 8, 2015, 2:01 pm

Do it if you like it. I try to not make decisions based on others opinions.

eight - June 8, 2015, 2:02 pm

Why don't you ask your IRL friends, if you have any, what they think? They will be the ones that will be seeing it all the time.

HF could like it, but it might not be the style in your city. Or hell, it might be.

TrollFacedManiac - June 8, 2015, 2:03 pm

Don't, well I I would just stick to black rims.

xMKproductions - June 8, 2015, 2:04 pm

i don't like the black on black tbh

add a bit of colour to it, i'd get those rims

beauty of a car

I asked my friend who owns a 370z as well about them and he said he has never seen them on the streets either, or at car shows/meets we usually go to, so it's hard to decide.

Kody?? - June 8, 2015, 2:40 pm

Those exhaust pipes are gay af. Go ahead and put those gay rims on it too.

webdev77 - June 8, 2015, 2:44 pm

It will just add more rice imo. Cars are designed how they are for a reason. White car with black wheels is fine. Black car with teal wheels is just strange looking imo.

Alex™ - June 8, 2015, 3:19 pm

Nice rice.

I do like the titanium tips though ;)

Vape. - June 8, 2015, 3:24 pm

Not bad, but like said, it may make it look like its a bit riced out...

BUTTERFLY DOORS

[img]http://carphotos.cardomain.com/ride_images/1/2712/4521/6779760015_large.jpg[/img]

Pick up girls that have no knowledge about cars and tell them its a luxury car

Dave Skylark - June 8, 2015, 5:02 pm

I would go with the purple/blue one as it fits better the black & combines with the exhaust.

Nice car.
