Wehrmacht - June 9, 2015, 4:53 pm

Age: 23

Spoken languages: English and German fluently, and a good bit of French.

Timezone: Pacific

Any other information you'd like to tell us: I'm extremely knowledgeable about SST and methods in general, I've purchased a plan before on Vdos and already know all the types of attacks it uses and how they work. I also have alot of free time on my hands to answer tickets and help customers with any questions they may want to ask and solve their problems. I'm a friendly guy and very outgoing, I've been interested in SST for over 2 years now, and would love to be a part of this, thank you for your time.

Sennheiser - June 9, 2015, 4:55 pm

is there any benefits of being the staff?

If there is, I might be interested mwahahahaha

You receive a free account and possibly a few gifts here and there, as tokens of appreciation.

b?xxy - June 9, 2015, 4:57 pm

What are the hours that are expected of us if we take this offer up?

Varane - June 9, 2015, 4:59 pm

Age: 15

Spoken languages: English, not really fluent French & Phasto and Dari [I doubt these languages aside English are needed]

Timezone: EST

Any other information you'd like to tell us: I have tons and tons and tons of free time on my hand. I also know a lot about DDoS methods including the current ones VDoS have. I doubt this would matter but i have extremely good social skills as well.

Also if you are wondering. On weekdays i am available for 7 hours each day. Weekends possibly 11+

I also understand the difference between Layer 4 & 7, i am not really all that familiar with layer 3 but i can spend some of my own time to research on it.

I wouldn't say that you'll be doing this 'by the hour', but more like 'by the ticket'. You can do as few, or as many as you want, but eventually if you're too inactive you're going to be removed from the team.

SOAP - June 9, 2015, 5:48 pm

So just answer tickets on the site?

Yes, it's a challenging job. We get hundreds of tickets per week, and we strive to answer them as quick as possible.

MafiaServ - June 9, 2015, 6:16 pm

Age: 24

Spoken languages: English

Timezone: GMT +/-

Any other information you'd like to tell us: Well, I've been playing with v-Dos and some other stressers for quite sometime now. I know almost every single attack method and it's functionality, used in v-Dos. I am also known to ports scanning, tracerouting and stuff, can help customers regarding their targets. I usually stay online 12+ hours everyday (sometimes even more), could be very effective for attending tickets and all.

Last but not the least, you need not to give me a Lifetime account, I already have one. ?

Age: 22

Spoken languages: English, French, German (English is main language)

Timezone:EST (Eastern Standard Time) and can be on for 15+hrs per day

Any other information you'd like to tell us: I am very knowledgeable in the stress testing market and know of many methods that are out there whether it be layer 4 or 7. I also know how to program and made my own scripts. I used to co-own a stresser called silent stresser however it never pulled off. I am also very good at SE and customer support as I own another business as well and know how to handle customers.

Spoken languages: English, learning Arabic (only just started)

Timezone: GMT +0

Any other information you'd like to tell us: I have quite a decent amount of knowledge in SST. I've ran 2 private, successful stressers before. I'm definitely qualified to be in a support staff position with tickets. I have knowledge in the methods that vDos employs on its service, along with 4-5 years experience in this field.

Foundatons - June 10, 2015, 12:03 am

Age:17

Spoken languages: English, Semi Spanish, Semi French , Learning Chinese (From a friend)

Timezone: London 00 Gmt

Any other information you'd like to tell us: A little bit about myself, which i think you should know, which in my opinion would make me overall the best choose for this position, is that Although i may not have as much knowledge as the rest that have applied. But i do have some so i am not completely out of the race, Along with that, i was once a previous customer of the stresser, so i think that could help me relate to the problems that people would present to me, as i may of experienced them myself. Not to mention i just get a good feeling from doing a good job, and that is what i would do. I believe that a good service starts with the way you treat people, and that the way you act portrays the business as well, which is why i would do nothing but the best to give the customers a experience that would want them coming back.

I Have other reasons which i could list, but you don't want a life story you want straight to the point, and that is what i have given.

other things i think would go well in this role that i posses:

Patience

Tech savy

Ability to spend 10+ Hours a day online.

Wish you the best in looking for a suitable candidate.

Along with that, i have previous experience from WESTRESS4U as support staff. Another reason, is that i would also enjoy this opportunity as not only would it allow me to help people, but it could be invaluable experience that could help me in the future.

Jon Snow. - June 10, 2015, 2:35 pm

Age: 17

Spoken languages: English,Hindi and Urdu to a proficient level. I also have a good control of German and Arabic.

Timezone: GMT - London.

Any other information you'd like to tell us: Although I've not the preferred trait of speaking Mandarin or Cantonese, I would like to emphasize that I have been well known in the past for providing excellent customer service, for my own products I used to sell on marketplaces such as eBay, to selling the odd product on this forum.

I have always wanted a role in which I could be part of a support team, as I believe I would be highly suited to the role, due to my nature of being calm and understanding, no matter the situation, which would be a much needed trait for this role to my understanding.

I hope you are able to take myself in to consideration, as I've been searching for a role which I can maintain my dedication too, whilst also hopefully earning a fair salary.

Thank you for your time.

/jeremy/ - June 10, 2015, 4:04 pm

Thank you to everyone who has written an application. Myself and other staff members will be reviewing each of your applications, and choosing who we feel will be a good fit. Once we have made our decision, we will be PM'ing whoever we have chosen.

I've PM'ed everyone who's been accepted.
