Thread: Giving away 100k OMC to someone. Last person to post gets it. Limit 1 post per day.

Matrix Programmer - June 10, 2015, 3:36 am

So I did this before and it got closed because of the amount of spam it produced. I will do it again and I have made it where you can only post limited 1 time per day and it must be a high quality post that describes something interesting that happened that day in your life. Anyone who may violate the 1 post per day will automatically be disqualified. Last person who posts when I close the thread wins.

good luck! ?

Hey OP I noticed you haven't closed the thread yet, so I thought I might participate. Ive always wanted 3p1c so..

Here is how my day went:

I woke up sick, and had to lay in bed for most of my morning. I went in my pool this after noon since no one was home, and found myself pretty much alone all day. I found myself really thinking about the things in my life.

In my life right now, I have been having a lot of trouble dealing with the people closest to me, and I'm honestly just trying to get by. I'm debating suicide, but know it isn't the right answer, so most likely I will just wait these feelings out. I don't know, It can be hard, especially with what goes on in the world.

Time doesn't stop for just one person, you know. No matter how much shit happens to you, everyone else's day goes on it one way or another. I guess that is a pretty dismal thought, but I find that is the only way I can think right now. Because its true; happiness is a fallacy. No matter what you do, colors will fade. The people you hold so dearly in your heart will die one day, and all happy moments will come to an end.

I guess I hope tomorrow will be a better day (it wont be, but I promis you all my post will be more energetic and joyful).

There is what went on in my day today OP. If that's not the post you were looking to receive, then you shouldn't have asked for that in your post.

Sorry if that was too dismal lol

Thx for the chance to finally get 3p1c op

theilluminati - June 14, 2015, 10:38 pm spent the day wondering about omnicoin or whatever its, called. Wondering if I should solo mine it, or add it to our mining pool, or start trading it during my normal work...

...but in the end I ended up being distracted, not happy about certain people I've done business with on HF not answering me and keeping their word, thus ticking me off enough to want to simply get away and squeeze these titties next to me.

crunch funyuns... titty squeeze eat a jolly rancher... titty squeeze crack some cracked-pepper-spitz... titty squeeze kill an ole english 800... titty squeeze eat a jolly rancher... titty squeeze
pop some aspirin... titty squeeze eat some jack links premium cut... titty squeeze did I say titty squeeze? I love titties... and the coins would go towards promoting more tittyism. yeah...

Epicur - June 15, 2015, 1:06 am

Okay so I'm going to explain something sad that happened to me. So I recently got a new GF and two weeks ago I finally went to sleep to her place. Everything was fine, we had sex and everything was fabulous and then I woke up at 3 am and I started vomiting in the bathroom, all her family got awake asking me if I was okay.

Maybe one of the worst situations of my life, and I was stuck with the toilet throwing it out.

So yes, that happened to me, thanks for the giveaway and good luck to everyone :P

So yeah. Day was really good. I hope I win, would make it even better. :)

I'm going to go ahead and post here. The way I see it, this is my chance at getting Epic :p

Well, it's 6:30am and I haven't gone to bed yet, so you could say I've had a long day. Not that I've done anything, I've mainly just been sitting here watching Ghost in the Shell and texting people for the past few hours.

The current price for Epic is about 6k, so I'll probably give the rest away if I happen to win.

posting because of the person above me..

Manuel Peter Neuer (German pronunciation: ['ma:nuel 'n?Y.?]; born 27 March 1986) is a German footballer who plays as a goalkeeper for Bayern Munich and the German national team. He has been described as a "sweeper-keeper"[4] because of his unique playing style and is known for his quick reflexes, excellent shot-stopping abilities, command of his area and accurate distribution of the ball.[5][6][7]

Neuer won the 2014 FIFA World Cup with Germany as well as the Golden Glove award for being the best goalkeeper in the tournament and is considered by some to be the best goalkeeper in the world since Lev Yashin.[4][8]

Today I experienced someone attempt to run away and not pay what is owed to me, I sent him a threat and now he is playing it out as if he has been targeted and I just flipped a switch and went mad. So after waking up to him removing me on both my skype accounts and then not replying to a message for 6 hours, I posted a threat on his forum. He then instantly added me back on skype and asked what was my issue. lol. I then went on to begin going through with the threat until I see a post on HF where he is bitching about how I am threatening him when this deal wasn't even on HF. Overall, he said he'll pay me back so I'm neutral for now, but if he doesn't then I am going to go through with what I said.

Hope that was interesting enough.

Been talking to a cool girl for the past week or so.

Obli - June 25, 2015, 6:28 pm

So we spoke a bit today, alright? She told me that her feelings were genuine, that she didn't want to let go of me, no matter what, and that it wasn't anything to be taken lightly. I guess that deep inside, especially considering her young age, I'm regarding this as not so serious, but she urged me to, and we pinky-promised a lot of things. Overall I feel pretty good, I still have shitty thoughts but those should fade away once we go to sleep... soon.

ItsATumor - June 25, 2015, 7:26 pm

Had a fucked up dream, but also was funny and made me smile. I had a dream that my good friend was walking with me down the hallway, and he saw my crush standing alone like 30 feet away. He broke away from walking with me, and went over to her and started to make out with her. I forgot the rest after that, but then we were in some cafeteria talking about it, and their relationship.

Made me smile as my dude was in the dream, but also kinda fucked up that he made out with my crush. I'm going to tell him this when I see him, and we'll have a good laugh.

Do you remember when you were born? That's when everything in your life came together at once. The dedication and lifelines of all the family before you lead up to that one moment. For that fraction of a second on this tiny Earth, you were the youngest person on Earth. And for every second you waste, that is the youngest you will ever be.

That is my day.

Digital101 - June 30, 2015, 11:45 pm
