7 vouches in the first page. Always be skeptical of vouches. Do your research before applying.

They are just his friends lol. But I doubt OP has any malicious intentions with his project, he is just trying to jump start his new PPD network.

What about BTC payments mate?

DuguWudi - June 15, 2015, 1:58 pm

I just apply for it, Bro.

SN 1006 - June 15, 2015, 3:59 pm

Interested in getting back into this. Applied into your network. I have at least 6 hours a day for 90 days to get started with this. Anyone willing to help me out?

Also, may I ask how the payment system works. What payment processors? For Bi-Weekly payments do we just need $15? Because the faster the payments the better in my mind.

NET 30 = $15 minimum every month.

NET 15 = at least $100 every month.

Bi-weekly = at least $300 every 2 weeks.

I'm just gonna test out this network.

`Xez - June 17, 2015, 8:20 am

From a business point of view, why should people use your site? What does it offer offer the networks you are sourcing offers from (guessing like most other PPDs Adwork Media, CPAlead, Crak Revenue etc)?

When you're utilizing the networks you've listed, you're limited to that networks top converting offers - with our system, you are given the highest converting offers on several different networks. Not to mention, we offer lower thresholds for faster payments - hence you don't have to work your ass off for your money for beginners. Some people I know give up after making $25 and can't hit the $50 threshold - losing that $25.

With a low $15 minimum, you'll be able to withdraw in no time.
