If you didn't watch the stream, they're releasing a new app TONIGHT depending on when you look at this.

You're an overseer of a vault, you're in control of everything, water, electricity, training, even naming the babies.

Looks like it's out for IOS now. Just search "Fallout Shelter"

Thanks for the link Jabari Parker: <https://itunes.apple.com/us/app/fallout-shelter/id991153141?mt=8>

No problem, keeps crashing for me tho. I guess I should figure it won't be 100% stable since it's new lol.

I'm so freaking pumped, oh my days.

Literally the only game I play on my iPhone, I've got it on in front of me now :')

Even though I usually hate paying for in-game stuff, I'm really tempted to buy some stuff in-game oops

I've been playing it recently. It's kind of addicting, and actually pretty fun in some weird sort of way.

They were talking about having a partnership with Apple and didn't even mention Android. It's not looking hopeful for us.
