if you anti-virus detect is virus then is a postive false
it cuz its obfuscated and protected from viewing my source code

Special thanks to

DB1000 For shells and Checking them Manually

RB1000 For shells and Checking them Manually

If you Interested for adding some Shells add me on skype:
Mostafasej

Well This booter is almost powerless but it can make a home connection laggy and Very good at skype or voice chat then their voice getting laggy and may kill a very shitty connection!

Normal obfuscated code doesn't show false positives... And there is a thread by a reputable member that has a release for a booter with the exact same name... This is either a ploy for shells, or you're out to infect. Please just quit while you're ahead.

Tha hell no! Nothings wrong with it!
Scan it no viruses! Directly Coded with VB!
Give it a try Currently is weak need some Shells PentestingForever.

I didnt know about there was another booter! named the same name! So Im gonna change the Name on the Next Update!
