Flyrect - June 21, 2015, 8:21 pm

So i found a product at a very cheap price on aliexpress, but very pricey with in USA
I listed one from a personal account, in just 45 mins, it was sold yesterday i took a bigger step and listed 100 Quantity from a verified account of a friend and this happened, (it doesnt let me put links, images or videos :\) sold 6 in less than 6 hours

What do you mean by this?

Flyrect - June 21, 2015, 8:30 pm

Buyers can register on their USA website, using the serial number on product for warranty

BTC BTC BTC - June 21, 2015, 8:32 pm

Not even gonna ask anymore. Don't have a clue what you're on about.

Serion - June 21, 2015, 8:33 pm

Not bad, but don't make an ebook for this lol, keep the method to yourself until it doesn't work.
That's how you make the real $$$.

Flyrect - June 21, 2015, 8:36 pm

You was asking, if the product is fake designer product

Thats my answer

and i would rather keep it to myself, instead of getting it saturated :\

Flyrect - June 23, 2015, 11:31 pm

Many are asking me if i will sell the niche, the answer is NO

but some people asked me to sell in local businesses and partnering in selling i'm interested. I cannot reply to your pm's because i need to make 25 posts

now i think i can reply to your PM's

DjHaxorz - June 24, 2015, 3:50 pm

Nice man, don't you have to input your credit card info to make payments to aliexpress? That's the only turn-off for me... Why wouldn't they allow PayPal? (I know Paypal is somewhat insecure but better than giving out ur card number)!

?Phobia - June 24, 2015, 5:07 pm

Yeah, you can get lucky with reselling from Ali Express. Just need to make sure you check it (and eBay) regularly. Sales are good too when you can buy on a sale and sell for full price, for example.
