Thread: [Boosting on a SILVER ACCOUNT for FREE! \[NA ONLY\]](#)

Maximum - June 22, 2015, 12:54 am

Looking to help out a friend in ranked and seeing if I can borrow someones account to rank them up, my main is Platinum 3, obviously I won't do anything else besides play ranked on it, need some runes and champions though.

What is the lowest rank you will need? I got a bronze account on s4 now it is unranked if you might need.

Are you able to duo with any division on an unranked account? Also how many champions/runes does it have?

you have to be within 2 divisions I think to duo. I have plenty of accounts, maybe we can work out a deal if you pm me.

I'm not really looking to purchase one, just looking for one to play on temporarily or when I need to.

unranked can duo with anyone, other than that must be within one tier, so no bronze and gold

Every unranked account that has no ranked history starts out at 1400 MMR. So anyone that is Plat, or silver you can duo with.

Look up Vesa on Elophant. If you care too, pm me. Silver, decent champ pool, etc.
