Most members who need help won't be upgraded, which means you won't get many people asking you for help. Pretty obvious but yeah.

Why are you adding restrictions?

Acquire Zion - June 25, 2015, 5:54 am

Yeah I'm not upgraded but I would really appreciate help with something... :)

Do you have any idea how I can access the 2 day NanoCore trial? The link of the sales thread seems dead.

You could get in contact with Lazy via PM.

He can probably fix everything (and I think the trial has jumped to 7 days)

Not anymore since Decipher took the restriction off.

@OP Good luck with the overwhelming messages you'll receive from people ;)

I enjoy it. HAH GOT EM!

Spoiler \(Click to View\)deez naggles

And here's a tip for you:

Maybe include a basic spreading method after everything goes down? ;p

I like to do that and I usually say torrents. They're extremely popular and I just can't express how good it really is xD

Except maybe saying I got 500 on my botnet ;p Too bad it doesn't allow remote executions.
