Not trying to be mean, but isn't there a signature function built into MyBB for this purpose?

Yeah but most of us already use it to advertise services or products, therefore it can be useful.

I'll submit this :)

Doesn't seem to be working on my end, it pops up when I hit post but doesn't show up in my post...

Hash G. - July 27, 2015, 3:13 am

Well it looks a bit weird. I'm testing it.

Edit : okay it works on my end. Do you have any other userscripts installed ?

Yes, HFES that's it... Is that what's causing the problem?

Eternal. - July 31, 2015, 2:11 pm

Pretty cool man, I'll test this with HFES.

Ill test this with HFES again.

Ill test this with HFES again.

I'll test this once more for the hell of it.

With HFES: Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Testing without.

This is what it does for me with no extra userscripts.

Overall, doesn't seem to work for me. The post reply button works too fast.

Thanks for the feedback, I'll investigate on this!

Edit : Okay, I think I've got it. Will update the script soon.

That's good that you ask. I can't really seem to fix it, so I decided to compile it on one script with a different settings page. I'm on vacation since two weeks already so couldn't work on it a lot but I don't forget it.

Stay tuned. :)

That's weird.

Why don't you just enable it? xDYeah the settings are not displayed in the CP because of the alert message.

I think adding signature after your post is considered LQ.

Correct me if I'm wrong though.
