Thread: PTC sites really pay you? Or not?

Scomplesso - June 29, 2015, 6:11 am

Hello HackForums members,

I'm a newbie on this sector, so I ask you for help me.

Recently I've discovered PTC site methods for making money, (more simply to say, clicking ads for money).

I'm registered on 2 sites:

1)twodollarclick.com

2)onedollarptc.com

These sites allow me to earn money through clicking ads... But my doubt is the withdraw, cash out or what do u call him.

In the 1st site the min. pay out is 1000$, every ads duration is 10 sec. and he give u 2$... I need too much time for reach the min! MIN! Pay out. I don't want it's a fraud.

Can u say me if PTC sites are fraud?

Thank you in advance. ?

The first site is fake.

The second site is fake.

Not every PTC site is fake.

Just use TBN to find that kind of websites, we aren't here to earn cents.

True to a point, they are actually useless.

Just go use Clicksense, its probably the best site, but you will make peanuts unless you get referrals and then you will get extra peanuts!

Yes. It's 100% legit. 90% of Somalia GDP is generated by pirates that don't hijack ships, but click on ads.

Lately, there are no t-shirts in stores, Bangladeshi kids stoped producing them and click their way to wealth.

I've heard Bill Gates use that website to generate some extra cash since Windows 8 sales are below expectations.

dude. turn off your browser, shut down your pc and go to sleep.. Tommorrow wake up with the attitude that making money online isnt as easy as signing up to a PTC and clicking an ad.. Look up "internet marketing" , not "make quick money online without doing anything" ;) good luck

Both these websites look so dumb & fake. Again, all PTC websites aren't fake though.

PTC sites are not the way to go unless you find an amazing site, and have the ability to invest a ton of money.

I know a guy who made hundreds from PTC sites, but that is only because he invested probably around $100+. Unless you have some money to invest, don't expect to get much out of it.

Usually when somethings too good to be true, they are. The sites are fake.

I've made over $300 with no investment.
