I suppose it does. ?

I didn't want to go any lower on the price, since it's already pretty low.

Op not going to sales thrash , but since when does the owner give the user the builder and allow them to sell bins?

The ironic thing is these comments and then you making the thread.

Lenchmob - July 5, 2015, 5:29 pm

Sorry to bother, but do you have proof of being allowed to resale?

I asked him the last time he was online, but he never responded, so now it's just a waiting game.

SALE: Price has been reduced to $200 this week. Sale ends Sunday, July 19th. Get it cheap while you can!

Terentino - July 11, 2015, 8:19 pm

v3.7 has been cracked and leaked. Don't waste your money on this lol.

Too bad this is the legit version, not cracked. Cracked version is super unstable, and doesn't grab latest versions of browsers. Stop sales trashing.

Do we get all the new Updates when they come out?

Elli?t - July 20, 2015, 9:46 am

Cracked copies are never as stable as the real one so it doesn't even matter.

Zettabit - July 20, 2015, 9:57 am

SALE: $200 sale has been extended until July 26th.

Yes, updates will be provided when I receive them. I'll get in contact with all my customers as soon as I get a new update.
