Why does the ending hurt so much? ?

This anime was so much fun to watch the feels killed me especially the last 2-3 episodes so many feels i'm going to remember this anime for such a long time.

13 episodes the story of a guy getting together with a girl and why did they... it makes me so sad :s

We knew she was gonna 'die' from early on so yeah

0.6/10 feels

He obviously wasn't going to make the same mistake Michiru did with her android and even if he was stubborn enough to do it, Isla would've still went rogue and 'died', probably after killing him.

It was sad, it was obvious what was going to happen at like episode 2 though. I'm glad they didn't make an exception for her but I feel bad for Michiru since her and Tsukasa didn't end up together.

I felt the same thing. Sure, the ending was sad, but it didn't have the impact of episode 1.
