Snow White with the Red Hair

Synopsis

(thanks ANN)

Shirayuki is a beautiful girl working as a medicine woman with red hair, a color that is considered very rare. When she is proposed and chased after by the prince of her country, she cuts her hair and runs away, only to meet Zen, the prince of a neighboring country. Finding respect for the young man, she decides to serve at his side as his court doctor.

I just watched the first episode and it seems pretty interesting. I've decided to use Zen as my avatar for a little while, since I'm not original.

Just watched both seasons and only have one thing to say: 10/10 Anime. It's a really smooth watch with lovable characters and there's also quite a bit of good humour in it. Loved it.

This anime is on my top for sure, i'm totally in love with the characters! The humor and the Romance propaganda is awesome, its written and animated really well.

Just started to watch season 2! Totally recommend it to everyone! ?

I love the setting, but the dialogue is pretty cheesy lol. I finished the first season and will start s2 soon
