Thread: TheSlugs Set & Place Method to Automate Income | Generating traffic for any niche!

The Slug - July 6, 2015, 9:40 pm

I spent the last few days putting together this .pdf guide that covers a method I have successfully used the past 3+ years.

I was going to sell it, but decided to give it out for free. I already had a few guys read it and they told me it's straightforward and clear.

Originally was going to stick some affiliate links in it too for those of you that might need hosting or whatever but screw it! Just enjoy lol

Basically my method shows you how to setup a profitable autoresponder to convert scraped, bought or collected email leads. We will be dripfeeding leads so after you setup your campaign and upload a list you will basically be making money on autopilot for up to months. I outline 2 different campaigns, one is for pushing a dating product and the other is for pushing an IM/MMO type product. Please read the whole guide from start to finish before asking any questions here about it.

Please download it because the headers and formatting are skewed if you try to read it in the browser. Plus when you follow this guide and setup your own campaign it will be easier when you have the .pdf on your computer where you can easily jump back to it:

http://www.mediafire.com/view/99p6bde5axenilu/TheSlugs_Set_&Place_Method_to_Automate_Income.pdf

I have generated over $150k last year with this exact method and on the road to making a lot more this year.

This method can be used for any niche and can be used in a ton of different ways so i'm not worried about saturation.

Enjoy Guys!

What the hell man. No need to put RATs on people's computer especially when you seem to want to help them you cunt.

By the way, if anyone needs a mentor for e-whoring I'm your guy. Look at my signatures :)

Virus total shows nothing.

The guide also looks very well put together.

THOUGH I MUST SAY: It was scanned on virustotal 5 days ago :)

no need to call me names mate. Scan it, there's no rat. Jeeze everyone on this forum are so on edge jesus lol. Run it in an emulator you'll see it's not a virus.

Go be a noob somewhere else before jumping to conclusions.

To you guys that find this useful enjoy.

You can also download it directly from here where I featured it:

SendPulse offer free SMTP allowing to send 12 000 email per month, at a rate of 50 per hour. I used to have several accounts with them, sending 500+ emails daily per account.

A quick question. Does becoming a publisher with viceoffers give you access to the full blown TEAR as part of the custom tools, or do you still have to get your own monthly membership with TEAR?

EDIT: I saw the "ewhore free leads" video. Well, that mandrillapp deal sure is sweeter than SendPulse. 250 mails per hour is a lot better.

Another question, though. OP, As you know scraping facebook emails is childs play, it can easily be done manually on a descent scale. And emailing those FB mails redirects the email to the real email box of the account's owner. With the method described in the video, without any links in the emails, will it be possible to get through FB filters, so the mail gets to the real inbox? Do you have such experience? I know that a one off clean mail, no links, passes through....so in theory it should be possible to get email leads from scraped FB emails...

Hm...I might want to try this, see how it goes.

If you are pushing traffic with viceoffers and doing over 1-2k with them weekly they will give you a free copy of TEAR. Otherwise they are separate things.

With facebook emails I would send them a message like "hey, are you interested in email marketing? Get back to me at my personal email xx@domain.com". Then have TEAR autoreply to all the messages incoming to that address.

Don't send any links or anything in the first email

I'm still waiting for my viceoffer payout...for like 3+ months now :D

I'm using different networks now who pays.

What's your ViceOffers account? You probably didn't get over the $100 minimum to be paid out. I've always gotten paid out and same with all my friends running with them

Just contact your AffiliateManager there and they will get you sorted if you ever have any issues

I'm an affiliate manager at ViceOffers and deal with billing. We have paid out every affiliate who has sent us traffic either on a bi-monthly or weekly basis. Please PM me.

There are only 2 reasons if you might not receive payment yet. (unless you are just trying to slander the network.)

1. You have not added your billing information to your account.
2. You have sent fraud to the network.

If you do not fall into the categories above then there is no way you haven't been paid out. If there is an error on our end PLEASE contact me or your affiliate manager at VO.
