PMed you, hope it works dude!

Double A - July 7, 2015, 8:24 am

Just pmed you :D thanks for the share

Seth Rogen - July 7, 2015, 8:48 am

I'm pretty sure this isn't legit. To get the better VPS' it requires referrals, yet the site has no place to signup for a VPS in the control panel.

Oh and this:

<https://i.imgur.com/1iNpkOg.png>

There's 13 other hosting sites, at minimum, being hosted by the same guy on the same server.

Charlie Sloth - July 7, 2015, 8:50 am

Just pmed you thnx for the share!

king - July 7, 2015, 8:57 am

Turtle - July 7, 2015, 9:05 am

Requested link from OP, didn't got PM yet (over 1 hour did pass, i think he ignores people who cant rep him LOL) from him. I noticed 5jelly word on here, i tried what i noticed is it's not allowing to go further than sign up, it's giving error page.

Another thing is it isn't legit, these kind of sites use a free webhost reseller plan to catch users into their own ads to make them revenue, in short fake from how it looks atm.

Site is 5jelly, nothing to hide about it.

Edit: Caution this site is not legit, tried to connect to the FTP info it gave me via file zilla and it doesn't work.

Datageni - July 7, 2015, 9:25 am

Let's see if this is another joke, or if it's a real thing. Can't wait to receive it.

I recommend you to check comments before simply reading the thread...

Lol man relax. I've already claimed 2 VPS from different IP's. The site is working for now. Please don't post saying that it doesn't work without even trying. I can't spoon feed you with a server, you just have to create an account there.

BlueShark™ - July 7, 2015, 10:20 am

Thehackerguy1 - July 7, 2015, 10:37 am

Bro when i register it takes me to a cpanel where it asks me to register a domain o_O

DanteStigma - July 7, 2015, 10:43 am

It's fake, really, it's huuuge fake.

Been trying for over 2 - 3 hours this but i always get this page when i do successfull sign up (but sadly instead of doing succeed, it shows this image).

It's fake, like yota or any kind of free vps hosts. Even if u register successfull, it will forward you to a similar looking control panel interface like 1freehosting.com with ability to only have webhost, not VPS.

Fake and gay, OP show proof else leave, we need proof to gain our trust, no proof = no trust.

Infamous8 - July 7, 2015, 10:48 am

If this is a 5jelly referral code not really a good sign since you are using others to get the VPS for yourself and not the other way around. Seems too good to be legit

Charlie Sloth - July 7, 2015, 11:08 am

Lol it's 5jelly, which doesn't work. GG dude.

Weso95 - July 7, 2015, 11:16 am
