That's probably because you have wrong Flashplayer version.

VCWdoubts - July 2, 2020, 12:19 am

Hello, I'm sorry I cant DM you but Im new here. I'd love to have your VCW. I also need your help:I've been using the old VCW package for a while by launching the Flash Player stand alone . Now I've got a new PC and can't get to use not only the standalone Flash Player but not even launching the swf file onto the browsers. I've tried downgrading the Flash Player version, I've tried enabling the shockwave files on any browser (I've downloaded most of them). Nothing, there's no way I can play my whores, if not as videos on VLC, which is obviously pointless as I need those little commands below them to make them wave, move etc.

Now, what can I do? Basically all I want is a way to use my old bots with commands below like I used to do with the flashplayer standalone.

Help me please, thanks
