NoobCell - August 30, 2015, 10:55 am

If this is an adsense exchange group, why do you need a CPAHero account?

If you're bad at it, yes. This breaches the Adsense ToS (obviously) but if you do it properly, you won't be banned.

Edit- my app:

Any Group Experience: Yep. Been doing this on/off for 3 years.

Country: United States

How active can you be: I have school and a brief bit of work that takes up my time, but clicking doesn't take very long. I'd say I can be active bits and pieces throughout the day.

Have you been in any other exchange groups before: Yep, as stated above been doing this on/off for 3 years.

If you read my reply, I stated that it will if you do it improperly. Untrained people will get you banned, people that know what they're doing will get you a crap ton of money.

Corporate Slave - September 2, 2015, 3:36 pm

These are my purposes > Get you guys approved w Google AdSense from Scratch > Set Everything Up > Exchange Links and Earn $$$

Currently 54 members in the support/mentor group.
Only 5 in the "Fully Set Up to Exchange"

5 members daily isn't bad , its barley any members but enough to make $5-10 daily.
Im trying to mentor ALL the members to be fully ready to exchange.

Now imagine how much money you can make with at least 30-50 members daily to exchange with!
