Thread: [\[Officially Unofficial: SecurityHub\] || Study Group || Hacking&Programming || Free](#)

Th3PonyWizard - July 13, 2015, 9:57 am

Welcome to SecurityHub's first student sector recruitment. If you are applying for this student recruitment, you will be taught a variety of things within coding and hacking, and also networking. You will be placed under a group dedicated to learn, and you will receive a list of resources which all of the group goes by slowly yet with dedication. Assignments, Homework, Projects, Githubs, you fucking name it. We have it. Some of our teachers are top-tier within programming (frontier, backtier, scripting, high-end, low-end, whatever). You will work by yourself, daily, and ask for assistance whenever you need it. This student recruitment will go on for as long as it takes to make you a full member of our group, SecurityHub. We don't accept just anyone into our group, so you will be taught what is required to stay. You will be taught by many of our experienced members in the group (Null members, Debug members, and more serious offsite members), ones that have fully knowledgeable with industry experience (And aren't selling shitty HF products, LOL), ones that hone their craftsmanship for years (And aren't Microsoft salary-slaves), you will get the full package here. The beauty is that you will get it by your own. Nobody will spoon-feed you. You will work on your own to know EVERYTHING you want. And we will be there for you, helping when you need it most. During your stay as a student, you will receive chances to get into Elusive and more business opportunities with me as well as Null. and have access to be part of us, our IRC, and all of our other resources. You will remain in the group until you are a full member and not a student anymore (=Joining Elusive and such). After you have completed the courses, the teachers will than decide on your stay in the group. If you have been putting effort in, not skipping assignments, and making progress, you will more than likely stay. However, if you skip assignments, do things such as horse play, or not take classes seriously, don't be surprised if you are asked to leave and get a fucking boot. The price for this student program will be $150 via Bitcoin, PayPal, Perfect Money, or Amazon Giftcard. FREE. Absolutely-mother-fucking-free. We're pioneers of knowledge, we're freaks of code, we're lovers of technological ownage and hacking. We dislike human greediness. True knowledge should be free, forever.

Heavily inspired by this thread, credits goes to it for some of style :\)

Notes. You're only getting one shot. If you fail the pace, you will not get a second invite.

We're a Skype group separated into niches: Low-Level Programming (C, C++, Assembly), Pentesting(Linux, Windows, Web Hacking), and Cryptography. At the generic main group, we learn everything.

I need teachers. I need people that aren't fucking greedy. I need people that want to teach and get absolutely nothing in return. I'm aware nobody will join me on this one, but I'm still standing here with the offer. We're going to show HackForums that groups aren't all about buyins, paid lessons, that we can teach ourselves just fine alone if we actually want to. PM me if you want to be a teacher.

No hard feelings for anybody here. I just thought of this funny idea. I think it's hilarious. I don't mean harm for anybody here. I'm not dissing or attacking anybody at all :')

Age: 16

Languages you want to learn: C#, Perl, or anything else. I mainly would just like to learn programming, doesn't matter which language since I'll probably be able to pick up the others fairly quickly (once I know one)

Why do you want to join: I've tried to learn programming on my own and failed, mainly because it wasn't really structured enough; basically I didn't have time restrictions (IE: assignments) and I started to get lazy.

How much time do you have: A decent amount...I'm on vacation till Friday, but should be able to work something out.
