Thread: Video Rejected WTF!?! Is this!? How!?

?clipse™ - July 16, 2015, 8:48 am

So I've been working on a video for almost a week, and I upload it and it gets rejected within 30 minutes?!?! I doubt anyone flagged my video since there were only 3 views which were from me. It usually updates the views fast that are below 301 mark.

My video also does not infringe copyright in both music/pictures?! Even if it does, I doubt I got flagged that fast!?

Why don't they tell me the real reason? They just mention that I've broken their TOS?

Any thoughts on why this happened? I'm really pissed atm. Is it because my video had the phrase: "hack" in the title/description?

I've seen countless videos with that phrase that aren't taken down.

Regardless of that phrase, my video is about something else that doesn't violate anything.

Contact support about it or re-upload the video. I don't think you can do much else. Sorry to hear this man.

Try not using the word Hack, I uploaded the same video with a different title, and tags and it worked.

If you've uploaded that same video before and it was removed, youtube will automatically flag it if the checksum is the same as far as I know.

How come some videos with similar words and the word hack itself are up for months without getting banned? I'm confused :l.

The tags with "hack" are searched allot for my niche so i don't want to remove it.

Any ideas?
