The whole point in making a private stresser, is to keep it private.

I'm sure he spoke with him for a long time before selling him a spot on his site, and I highly doubt he'd accept some random person to purchase a spot as well, so yes, I do believe he'd deny said person a spot on said private stresser.

I denied him permission to renew his account when I saw him acting up on here with these posts. Sick marketing scheme, sadly you're not capable of anything crazy.
