Thread: American Dad is really cringy.

Anybody else feel like every, or close to every episode of American Dad is really cringy?

Like at some points the cringe is so hard, I have to skip over the part.

That's what dumb comedy is about. Saying or doing silly things to get a laugh.

It's really not that bad so I don't see the problem.

This is pretty accurate. Family Guy, The Simpsons, etc are all like that.

Same goes for South park? I honestly hate everyone who likes south park that shit is retarded.

Family guy is DECENT.

I love American Dad and all the other shows like that. I'm fucking immature and laugh at stupid shit.

YES! I totally agree I can't stand South Park, every once in awhile I will watch Family guy..

I like American Dad, Rick and Morty shit like that.

South park puts too much focus on touchy subjects or current events. Way to serious for a cartoon but I do enjoy American Dad. The dad is very ignorant but it make sense because he works for the CIA lol I think roger the alien makes the show more watchable
