Thread: [Low - Medium - High Payments! \[UPDATED DAILY!\]](#)

TNF. - July 20, 2015, 11:00 am

Hello Hackforums, I'm here to give you some little niches to use for your victim from low to high.

Low:

Fast food - You need a little bit of money to buy some quick fast food.

Discount Stores - You need money for the discount stores.

Hospital Bills - You have to pay low hospital bills.

Medium:

Clothes Store - Say you need money for clothes.

Bills - You have to pay some bills.

Birthday Money - You want to give a friend money for their birthday. (Or relative, etc.)

Family Gift(s) - You want money to gift a family member.

High:

Plane Ticket - You want money for a plane ticket to visit your victim. (Or relatives, friends, a meeting, etc.)

Car repair - You want money to repair your car so you can visit your victim. (Or relatives, friends, a meeting, etc.)

Extorted - You need a lot money otherwise you'll get extorted.

Members that helped.

I can work on this again but there are no people that help me with this. I can start this again if you want, no problem.

Private message me if you have a question.

A new member showed some interest and created a similar thread although it was way underdeveloped.

I will keep your thread alive because I really like that idea. Currently I am working on other projects and can't offer more help than keeping it alive by posting now and then.
