This contest is quite an effortless one, but not a simple post to enter.

I'll be straight forward, best person to give me a true/bullshit reason why they want the money gets it.

This contest would be based on 'emotionally' making me feel like you deserve it.

Contest ends in 5 days (26/07/2015)

Prize is $5.00 BTC

Let the best bullshitter win ?

If no one is chosen winner will be taken by random via post number.

ComplexGenius - July 20, 2015, 5:36 pm

My name is Braff Zacklin. I was an international race car driver. One day, a baby carriage rolled out onto the track so I swerved into the retaining wall to avoid it. The car burst into flames, but the baby miraculously survived ... I was that baby.

It's hard to say who truly deserves to win this money. I'm sure their are members who are in just as bad of a situation as I am in. I don't come from a well off family, my dad and mom are always out working to pay the bills and put food on the table. That leaves me to care and watch over my little sister. If I want to purchase something, I need to save my money for a long time, as I don't have any way of getting a job. It is very tough, but it has taught me a lot. I've learned that hard work will always pay off and bring accomplishment, which is a feeling I will never forget. I've had to constantly keep moving from house to house, each one getting smaller and more cramped. Leaving my friends behind, having to attempt at making new ones, which is not a easy task. It's better than having no house, I guess, but it's not a fun lifestyle. My current shoes are a old, cheap, worn out pair of some knock off of Nike sneakers. I've been wanting to buy new shoes for some time now, so I can walk along the wooded trails near my house and not keep getting painful blisters. This money would finally make it so I can purchase a new pair, one like the other kids wear at my school.

Double A - July 21, 2015, 8:18 am

Hey man, so I see you are holding a contest. Well I would like to win because well my dad recently got surgery on his leg which removed his knee. He can't work at all and is in pain most of the time and my mom is working most of the day (at work and at home helping my dad) Its putting stress on my mom seeing how she works at a fast food place and makes little money and our store we own isnt going so well in terms of business.

Well I would like to win the contest in order to help save up money and get my parents a gift in the future as we are going through hard times and my dad will never be able to work again due to his surgery. The doctors said that if he puts too much strain on his knee he may get injured badly. My parents are gonna sell the store soon and help save money for the future and for my education so theres that. If i dont win its no biggie but thank you for holding a contest such as this ?

p.s parts of the story are actually true and happening to me :c

Ishmel - July 24, 2015, 6:49 pm

Hi, I am Jackie. I was born black, but my mother poured bleach on me (my father had left us) and made me a white girl. Now I am albino and no one will hang out with me. When I was in 5th grade I tried hanging out with black kids and I called a black boy 'my nigga' and he thought I was white, so he raped me and gave me AIDS, Syphilis, Gonorrhea, and a few more. My mother hated me and refused to take me to a doctor. This combination of AIDS, Syphilis, Gonorrhea and my mothers shit inside of McDonald's gave me cancer. The cancer was in the form of a tumor in my face. I also lost my sight. A few years later the tumor was much worse, but apparently I became a black girl again. I also in the past year was mistaken for a sex change patient while getting my tumor checked, and they put a dick on me.

So now I have a dick, and AIDS, and Cancer, and Syphilis, and Gonorrhea. If you give me the $5 I will be able to receive care and become cured.

Thank you.
