Thread: free irc server spots :\)

Trueancy - July 21, 2015, 8:09 am hi HF Users thought i would do something nice for the hf community so today im going to be giving out free spots on my own private IRC server you can host what you like on the server and you can have your own channel and o line and yes this is all free :)

just pm me and i will send you all the info you need or right below

I'm assuming you mean you're giving channels out so they can get their own bots in it, most people are probably replying to this thinking you're giving out a spot with bots :rofl:

But you're probably only doing this so you can use other peoples bots to be honest and anyone who doesn't hide their channel can be screwed over with listing channels...
