Giving out vouch copies pretty loosely, write that you want one on the thread and your skype (or pm me your skype) and I'll see if I can give you a copy.

The method was a basic look at the botting world of runescape. It was well written and clear. The author add tips to help the person out. He also put in calculations in of how much you can potentially make and invest. Not only that, but the author also talked about different approaches to complete this method. This method would really help newbies out, because of gathered good information for around the web and put it into one.

My rating: 7.5/10

You should probably add what game this is.

No one will know.

First I thought world of Warcraft.

And u better not be selling that public list that was released 2 days ago by the gold farmer who quit HF.

my bad! although it does say in the FAQ Runescape, I didn't think of it before I made this layout :(

Also, I never saw this public list, however I guarantee you it isn't the guide I am selling.
