Thread: Looking for some people to actively critique :\)

Negus 0 - July 24, 2015, 6:01 pm

Hey! I'm new to the forum as well as photoshop. I'm looking for some people to have on skype that I can get feedback from on projects, as well as some ideas every now and then!

If anyone is willing to help me out just post or pm me and I'll hit you up with my skype.

Thanks :)

I'll be sure to give you any criticism I can, this can both be bad, good and what I feel would need improvements, I'll message you on here back your feedback, Skypes currently bugging out at the moment in time.
