This looks like a really sketchy PTC site to be honest.

ILY ? - July 27, 2015, 4:22 pm

lol, too bad it's not pal, having the word " clix " in doesn't mean it's a PTC, and btw I hate PTC.

mtawolf - July 27, 2015, 4:24 pm

@ Justin TimberLakey

Better view the website before coming to conclusions lol

1. Get an account
2. Purchase waste at low price same day
3. Sell recycled waste at high price in 2 weeks or a month

Yes, you can cashout in USD through a Wire Transfer or PayPal, it works worldwide and so easy to setup!

pengu1n23x - July 27, 2015, 6:39 pm

I'm thinking of trying this out as well, just to see if it's legit.

SoCloseToToast - July 27, 2015, 7:19 pm

Tried it out and will update soon. Thanks for the method.

I can kind of confirm this as working, after depositing the free $20 yesterday i've already made a $1.13 profit, and I understand exactly how this site works now, it's basically a share/gross and stock system for supporting waste. They make profit and increase growth with our "$20" investment and while they gain that opportunity to grow so do we.

Its basically a thanks for helping us get somewhere system..

Now where the stock plays in.

Imagine after a couple weeks that 100kg grew to $40, thats a $20 dollar increase, and you could walk away with that, or you can reinvest $40 dollars and make even more money if the waste were to continue to rise.

This is just a my observation on how the website works, now about payment proof, im gonna trust the OP and his judgement that it's legit..

It really doesnt waste my time to try it out for 1 minute out of my day, and free stocks are free stocks take it or leave it man..

Damn i typed alot kind of..

Thank you for explaining this! I tried to read through the about sections on the website but it was long and confusing and I just got bored to be honest. Anyways, hopefully this site will pay out, looking forward to further proof and vouches.

Recently saw this one, keep in mind you cant withdraw the 60, to do that you will have to do a few more rounds.

tenekedakos - August 3, 2015, 7:01 pm

You can not withdraw money you made with bonus only.You have to invest...

kidd24 - August 3, 2015, 8:43 pm
