There is a method specifically for streamers and there is also a method for when encountering 'random people' ingame

There is a method for both sir.

The whole debacle between Fumes and Iloominati was blown out of proportion, primarily because of me. I fought Fumes' battle and trolled everyone in the process.

Fumes' scam report which was written entirely by me and was made to manipulate the minds of HF members. What it didn't do was give credit for one method in this Ebook which is (in my honest opinion) worth the money. I can actually see you making good money from this.
