Thread: Refund policy problems with Dave Skylark , UID = 2046407

meaN2k15 - August 1, 2015, 6:26 am

Im just gonna post a link to the scam report I made, Dave Skylark's T.O.S had refund policy in it, when hes customers asking for the refund since the .php source he sold to us was leaked he declines the refund.

HF report: hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4931282

To open a community alert you must be a legitimate account.

And once again I say, I OFFERED A SETUP SERVICE.

I did not sell you a source code, I have it on github, I can even link you to it if you want.

lehterdotcom - August 1, 2015, 6:28 am

I mean, it's not his fault someone leAked his source

Idk who's side to be on, but good luck getting this Resolved

Stop assuming via trust scans that people are multi's you dumb fuck.

Also it was never stated in the rules that you must not have any IP matches with any other users to create a community alert.

Also why did you copy Tommy's usertitle? You probably make 0.1% what he does LOL

I recommand you to don't buy any product from him , he's selling leaked source with exploits , and he'll not even help you for setup if you get 1 issue.

I asked him for a refund , he never answer.

The worst thing is the bot , it keep crashing he'll never help you for make the crashes stop.

YEA HE SCAMMED ME PM ME ALL THE INFO YOU GOT ON SCRUBLARK PLEASE.

Embargo - August 1, 2015, 6:53 am

Dave Skylark sold his a setup service which was littered with bugs, used a stolen script, refused to refund his money, and then changed his terms of service and tried to delay until his 7 day refund policy was void.

He also keep bringing up the trust scan even though the scam report is against him, and negative reps anyone that doesn't take his side.

Deal with caution.

DONT DEAL WITH SCRUBLARK AT ALL ANYTHING HE IS TRYING TO SELL HE FOUND ON GOOGLE.

Hash G. - August 1, 2015, 6:58 am

Please avoid caps, it makes you really unprofesionnal and childish.

To be fair, that's really not something bad. If you couldn't find it yourself on Google then he still did you a service.
