Blurays come out on Oct. 7th, you'll have to wait until after then for a subbed version. Even longer for dub.

Yeah, you can't sub the movie without a source. The source is the home release, unless of course you like cams.

I can't wait to watch this movie. I love watching Dragon Ball Super in the mean time.

I just got back from the theater not to long ago, it was great!

Battle of Gods was way better imo.
