Thread: Anyone see Resurrection F

I was out of the DBZ loop for a while and been slowly getting back in. Really interested in seeing Resurrection F. Has anyone seen it yet. I have been hearing good things from people I follow on Twitch.

No but everyone says it's good.

I'm still looking for a stream on the english dub :/

Friend that works at the movies did a private screening for a group of friends and I. It was a good movie overall, but a few things annoyed me. Talking about it would be to much of a spoiler.

That's really cool Sorun and thank you for avoiding spoilers

Pretty good in my opinion, animation was great. Really worth watching.

it was pretty textbook DBZ, in a good way

Saw it with my friend. I liked it, but he didn't.

Animation was great. But it felt rushed. I enjoyed battle of gods a lot more. Also vegeta didn't get enough screen time at the end of the film ;//

I liked it way better than Battle of the Gods.
