You can earn trough mining what isn't the best option. I would prefer you to buy bit coins and sell them for more. Good luck!

Just search on google: 'Bitcoins for creditcard' or whatever. I would post links but I can't ;/.

You won't make any mining. You can accept Bitcoin as payment for services, try your luck at gambling etc.

Definitely you won't make anything mining with the difficult of today, if you want mine go for some altcoin those has less difficult and you can get some profit, else you can just buying and selling bitcoins for the best price and making some bucks daily with it.
