So I'm addicted to this song and I've been singing it everywhere I go. Any recommendation on what I should do to myself to get this song out of my head?

Thanks!

Nothing. Ellie Goulding is bae. Listen to some more of her music and you'll get addicted to her other songs.

Just let it happen man. It'll get old eventually.

Just listen to it a ton, her songs die out in like a week.

Study shows that when you can't stop thinking of a song you should sing the ending verse of the song a few times to knock it out of your head.
