Please do take action. It bothers me every time I come across it.

There is nothing wrong with that signature as far as I know.

240sx - August 9, 2015, 4:20 am

Add them to your ignore list then simple.

There is also an option in the user CP to disable all signature images, or you can add that image to a blacklist in Adblock.

Why is it disturbing, are you a jew?

Is he serious? This has to be a troll...

Matt Bomer™ - August 9, 2015, 4:29 am

Signature isn't against rules, as Parameter said - add him to your ignore list.

Man these weaboos can't get real girls so they stick to their pixel ones itsMeCherry - August 9, 2015, 5:43 am not too different to the other random anime content you see no adays

OP:

Technically, the signature doesn't break any rules. It's suggestive and that's it. But it's not overtly sexual.

If a Staff member however, feels it's too overtly sexual, or too graphic, they can remove it. Else-wise, it stays.

Optionally, you can just block all signatures from showing, or add him to your ignore list.
