Alright i received a vouch copy two days ago, i was meaning to post an earlier review but because of the problems i have had with my rat setup on my vps, i haven't had a chance to test it fully.

Yesterday OP spent 4 hours on my computer, trying everything to fix my rat in the slight chance that it could be something wrong with his Crypter (which it was not! was problem with hoster)

so 10/10 on customer support and service

10/10 FUD (two months undetected) This thing is 100% UD!!!! i mean holy crap, i bought razors 3 months sub and it got 3 detects asap, this thing is FUD right out of the box, and very easy to use! Needless to say i regret that buy ;p

Noob friendly 9/10 (reason i deduct 1, is that there are still a ton of features and it might be hard for a newb to know exactly what each thing does, maybe add a little ?? box explaining)

This is one of the more noob friendly crypters i have ever seen, in the news list there is a list over which settings are best for which rat (little list of popular rats, and if u got questions just ask OP)

When you choose injection method it has a smart function so it will only let you compile it in the right language (Native/.Net) it wont let you compile a .net rat into native

Features 10/10

It has a ton of features, though what i am most impressed by is the file binder and the clone/icon changer, it works perfect, you can make your program look so legit u can distribute on most websites and not have it taken down for malware... big money potential :p

Well thanks a lot for the vouch copy, i'll buy a lifetime sub i will buy a lifetime sub for this as soon as i can get the money for it!

Best regards Hannibal

Frequently asked questions

Is DeluxeCrypt compatible with my file?

DeluxeCrypt can crypt every file, if it doesn't require .NET SelfInjection and if it doesn't use EOF.

I need support. What to do?

PM me, add me on skype, ICQ or jabber. DO NOT SPAM - I answer every customer as soon as possible.

My file is detected. What to do?

Change the icon and the assembly. If detection still remains report the detection in the crypter client.

Is it working with every OS?

You can only use Windows for running crypted files and only crypt exe's. I tested Windows Vista, Windows 7, Windows 8, Windows 8.1 and Windows 10.

A clean interface, a reasonable price and a lot of claims. The real question is if those claims are truly valid or not. Well first off lets check detections.

After crypting with DeluxeCrypt the results begin to look much more favourable.
Result: (1/60)

The native stub is also native and can be confirmed yourself by scanning with tools like PEiD.
The interface is clean and well laid out with no excessive graphics or contradicting colours which makes life easy. Personally I prefer minimalistic looks so I am a bit biased on that point.

Usage is simple and quite plainly, straightforward. The Native as well as .NET features are very useful since there are no dependencies needed.

Spoiler (Click to View)

The "extras" are pretty much the standard except for the spreaders and a couple of advanced options such as process propriety and spoofer. Have not seen very many tools which boast options to spread via Skype/Steam/etc. I have not tested those features since I do not want to actually infect any of my contacts hehe; nor do I have an environment to actually test such features.

Spoiler (Click to View)

The "advanced" options are also pretty standard. The file pumper is a nice addition and the file binder actually works which is - in my experience - rather rare.

Spoiler (Click to View)

The "crypt" window is where the action really starts but at the same time comes to an end. The ability to save and load profiles are more valuable than what you might give such a simple feature credit for.

Spoiler (Click to View)

All in all I have to say it is a tool which does what it states. How long the binaries will remain fud'ded for is another story since this is a very new tool to the market!

Lol. I'm trying to be smart? Are you trying to be dumb? That was a legitimate question. One that if you were "smart" you wonder what the heck he is talking about

DeluxeSoftware - August 22, 2015, 8:20 am

KillaMuvz, then it seems wrong. I know that you are a talented coder, but that doesnt mean that you are allowed to make other products / members bad because they criticize you. Certainly there will be no runtime scan. (Because I'm going to pay you any penny) Watch my bypass videos and exactly, we program a crypter in Autolt because Autolt got no dependencies.

Let's clarify the misunderstanding and let's be friends and not enemies.

You have 2 bypass videos. There are many other languages without dependencies that would be much more suitable for a crypter and would not double the size of the file.

Anyway, good luck with everything. Just don't comments about my crypter and I will leave you alone.

P.S. I will give you a free scan token :)

Hello,

this is a really fucking good crypter with all functionalities you need and more. Coder keeps it FUD all time, and he went with me through error messages over hours. But he is not only good in his technique shit, on top of it he is very uncomplicated and a nice guy, doesn't go mad with you and helps whenever he can. I give it 10/10

Just started the payment process. Any advice regarding crypting a Luminosity stub with Deluxe Crypter? Injection ,the ring3 rootkit etc, any advice is welcome.

Thank you for buying.

Disable rootkit, installation.. in LuminosityLink and use normal/hidden startup of crypter.

As injection choose RegAsm.

Do you know the expression that says one picture is worth a thousand words?

However, for those who ahve Ozone, it seems like it broke the Keylogger and the rootkit.. Better use Luminosity with it.

Mikael Blomkvist - September 30, 2015, 8:17 pm

Just tested this with a .net worm and it works like a charm, the persistence is incredible. On the other hand, I couldn't get the Luminosity stub working with this, guess i will have to try again tomorrow with different settings. But this product is da real MVP.

DeluxeSoftware - September 30, 2015, 9:32 pm

Because DeluxeCrypt Stub is in Autolt, you need to disable rootkit in LuminosityLink (and installation..)

Then it should work :)

Best Regards,

sirarduin - October 1, 2015, 9:39 am

@DeluxeSoftware

What setting were you using for Ozone ?

DeluxeSoftware - October 1, 2015, 10:52 am

Cibor sent me a file with no settings in OZONE. I just crypted it and ran it on my VM. That worked. Test yourself which settings are working stable. ?

[IMG]<http://www.upload-pictures.de/bild.php/92498,aufzeichnenYWERB.jpg>[/IMG]

Not like other crypter I owned, always waiting till it's FUD and when you waited 5 days with luck you get a FUD file for 24 hours LOL. But this one is really always FUD. Updates are coming out even before (hahahaha) it gets detected.

Seriously a great crypter.

Vault-tec headquarters - October 13, 2015, 6:08 pm

You have to turn off the ring3 rootkit on your LL stub for it to work right.. turn melt off too and antivm as it's in deluxecrypt also everything else can be turned on even ll startup works along side hidden startup on deluxecrypt lol. I usually use regasm, hidden startup, file persist, kill system restores, high process, startup persist, mutex, and a small delay just in case. you can compress if you need. just make sure you don't open it on yourself with hidden startup and file persist.. 0_0 it's a nightmare and i havn't received an answer yet on how to get rid of file persist, but they told me they are working on a script that can kill it for stub upgrades on slaves.

Very nice crypter, strong hide startup and persistence, high execution rates.

angelman31 - December 5, 2015, 1:19 pm

Crypter's scanner is not working, please update with viruscheckmate ;)

DeluxeSoftware - December 6, 2015, 12:52 am

Yes, crypter used refud.me.

As far as I know, viruscheckmate API only works with one IP. So it won't work.

You can setup a scanner on your server which just uses the viruscheckmate api. This also prevents users from stealing your api key
