Infected Link:

I'm 100% positive this user infected Bald Cat. My proof is below.

I'm also certain he infected him using Cammy. I looked in the stub. It makes numerous references to "Cammy/...." and I compared the stub that infected Bald Cat to a Cammy stub and they were very similar.

Email Used to Register:

Earthling.IP and CreativeHF both resolve back to the IP that was used to register on hackforums. CreativeHF Is Onuzi's Skype as seen here

Skype: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4855211&pid=47276446#pid47276446>

Furthermore the BTC addresses from both accounts (which both love BTC giveaways) match up perfectly.

BTC Address From hackforums: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=373#pid3213>

BTC Address From HackForums:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4919940#pid47153637>

Even better, Onuzi was giving away upgrades on HF for LetsForum.net which now redirects to hackforums.net. I think I proved enough here.

Credit does go to Asuna Yuukii He has helped out a lot solving this, couldn't of done it without him.

Yep I enjoyed playing detective for a few hours. Gave me something to do.

I managed to help remove a RAT from two computers, find out who RATted them, break 100 posts, and got 19 rep in one day!?

I'm pretty proud of myself ?

PirateSec - August 10, 2015, 3:25 pm

Nice detective work anime. I'm very proud of you :x

The link is there. In the line "I'm 100% positive this user infected Bald Cat. My proof is below." If you click "this" it goes to his account. But either way thanks for posting that ?

I personally vouch for this.

Maze - August 10, 2015, 5:33 pm

Also note that he has another Skype, as shown in this thread

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4924908>

He registered on my Forum after talking with me on that Skype, and his registration IP matches his other Skype Addresses.

Not sure if this would help, but just avoid any dealings with this person.

I saw that skype but decided not to add it as I didn't really have anything to link it to. :/

SiStemiC - August 11, 2015, 12:34 am

From the logs on King Forums he's got the same IP as his 2 Skypes. I'm really positive it's his real one. This also because he was making threads asking how to connect to a site with his VPN (he probably meant HF).
