Thread: HFNT // On-Call Recruitment - Limited Time

Hydra - August 10, 2015, 11:11 pm

I'll keep this short and sweet, no fancy layout or anything of that sort.

I'm looking to recruit around 3 members who are capable of writing various Hack Forums related sections such as Notable Threads, Site News, etc. Your role will be on-call so when the assigned writer is unable to meet the due date, you will come in and complete it.

Requirements: Above average in reading and writing English.

Active Friday-Tuesday

Aware of forum happenings

Must be Ub3r

Willing to put in effort

To apply, just post here and I'll run a 'background check' on you. I'll PM you asking you a few questions if I deem you a potential Writer.

DO NOT PM ME ABOUT YOUR APPLICATION STATUS OR ANYTHING REGARDING THIS THREAD. I'LL ADD YOU TO THE IMAGINARY BLACKLIST AND WON'T REPLY. Post your questions here, I'll reply here.

Maxi - August 10, 2015, 11:12 pm

Goodluck to everyone applying.

-Taunt - August 10, 2015, 11:15 pm

I complete every single one of these. I am active on the forum everyday, I may not post a lot but I certainly read a lot of threads a day and like to keep in the know. I believe my English skills are of a decent level, but that is something you would need to see yourself. I am active Friday-Tuesday (AEST). And I am willing to put in the effort! I think it would be an awesome experience.

Trenchguns - August 11, 2015, 5:26 am

I think I'll just stick to point out spelling mistakes and being ignored. XD

Orchid - August 11, 2015, 5:31 am

I could do notable threads, I would do better in this than a primary writer. I show good grammar in my posts for the most part (if I am not on my phone).

Wires - August 11, 2015, 5:33 am

I'll be happy to volunteer. Hope to hear from you.

minimalist - August 11, 2015, 5:35 am

Trifecta - August 11, 2015, 6:29 pm

Hello. I would be happy to volunteer as an HF writ3r. I enjoy writing as well as reading and I have taken multiple college English classes. I can't even count how many essays I have written (too many) but I am eager to take on a new role as a writer. I'm happy to fill in whenever you need me.

Thanks.

edit: Forgot to mention that I have taken five years of Latin if that makes a difference.

Otis??????????????? - August 11, 2015, 8:00 pm

I did them a while back, was really busy with school.

I would love to do them again.

Allison Argent - August 12, 2015, 10:00 pm

I would like to put myself forward.

Note: Friday-Tuesday If I have any eligible reasons to why I can't follow up then I'll let you know (currently having a load of job interviews at the moment).

I've got a medium classed literature level, just hate differentiating between the dumbest of words (they're, their, there etc).

Used to be a Writ3r, was a good experience overall. I am hungry to get back into writing because I haven't written anything since I was published in the NY Times.

HIGH PAID FELLA - August 13, 2015, 2:20 pm

I'm interested in a position as writer - I'm fully capable of writing good articles regarding computer security and I'm always up-to-date regarding this type of news.

Webmasters - August 15, 2015, 12:59 am

Would be very interested in this position. If you have any questions about something I've done in the past, don't hesitate to PM me. :)

Aurora - August 16, 2015, 7:39 am

Any other applicant interested in doing this?

Retribute - August 16, 2015, 7:13 pm

Sure, I'll express interest in this recruitment. I was the proofreader for the HF News under the late Sir's reign for around one year, and before that I was part of the Wiki team. I was favored to take over Sir's position prior to his unfortunate departure, according to him, but I left the team due to real life circumstances beyond my control. I have 7 months worth of online time, so this goes to show I'm frequently on Hack Forums, albeit not a frequent poster.

Hydra - August 19, 2015, 3:07 am

I'll soon begin contacting members with further questions. I believe 6 pages of posts should be enough to last 2-4 waves of On-Call recruits. Do not contact me regarding the status of your application, you'll be denied and ignored right away. Actually, don't PM me at all regarding this recruitment even if it isn't about the status of your application.

Will close this thread and will reopen if needed in the future.

Hydra - August 21, 2015, 5:20 pm

PMs have been sent out. If you did not get a PM, you're most likely denied. I may send out more if needed.
