This Chrome Extension transforms Hackforums.net in a new layout. It's nothing fancy, but some variety. I will publish a 100% custom style on occasion with some features.

- Dark, Flat
- Lightweight (without features)
- Icon backgrounds not adjusted

Preview v1.0

You can look at the source code with the chrome extension source viewer without downloading it.

Not a big fan of the font personally but other than that it's not bad.

Boxed - August 11, 2015, 11:15 pm

I had completely forgotten to add a link xadamxk, now available.

Thank ?????? ?????, in the next version the font (& more) is freely adjustable.

I usually don't develop chrome extensions xadamxk, added a google webstore link.

It's what I say, normally I don't publish extensions (formulated incorrectly before).

Yes, of course xadamxk.

Thank you Crazy Dave.

Currently creating the public "Hackforums Extend"-Extension.

Sarcastic Desires - August 12, 2015, 5:47 am

It looks disgusting man. Sorry to tell you OP, but, fuck if I would use that, I'd puke a lot.

Quinn. - August 12, 2015, 5:47 am

I won't be using it personally.

Lipton's Ice Tea™ - August 12, 2015, 5:50 am

I'm using it right now - it's not that bad to be honest. I like it.

A matter of taste Sarcastic Desires and Quinn., thanks anyway. In v2 there some more themes, maybe theres something for you too.

Thank you Sarah Manning.
