Thread: [\[Tutorial\] How to access HackForums with a VPN](#)

morph - August 12, 2015, 1:58 am

Method 1: Automatically add routes with a programDownload:

http://s000.tinyupload.com/index.php?file_id=09840049642684220805

Virustotal:

<https://www.virustotal.com/sv/file/7599a4d69ddbb95bd6085ddcd74958a6343f288531d041e4486dd3dab5d14d7c/analysis/1486550215/>

SHA256: d9243b1c5283695880c260812cfe609e9f2be88da20e5226420a0d4646c2b8ab

Simply run the program as administrator and choose your gateway IP. When it's done you'll be able to access HF without turning off your VPN.

Method 2: Adding the routes manually1. Getting the IP addresses of HackForumsYou can use whatever service you want for this step, but I recommend using this site. I got these IP addresses: 141.101.121.10, 141.101.121.11, 141.101.121.12, 141.101.121.13 and 141.101.121.9

2. Getting the default gatewayOpen up Command Prompt as Administrator, type in ipconfig and hit enter.

Find the default gateway for the adapter you are using. In my case, is 192.168.1.1

3. Adding the routesNow that we got HF's IP addresses and the Default Gateway, we can add the routes!

To add a route, simply type "route add HackForumsIP DefaultGateway".

For the first IP in my case, I would type "route add 141.101.121.10 192.168.1.1". Repeat this step for every IP you got in the first step and after that you will be able to access HackForums with a VPN.

Enjoy!

Nice tutorial, great for the people out there who didn't know about this.

It might be good to add the the op as well that you delete a route by just typing delete instead of add.

So uh, did you rip my tutorial for rep or is this just a very strange coincidence? I don't mind, I just found it especially egregious :P

I made this tutorial days before you on another forum called hackforums, so no. This is also more detailed.

Great tutorial OP

Just marking it, gonna test it out later :)

I really appreciate you sharing this!

I'll be putting this method towards other things as well.

Mikael Blomkvist - August 18, 2015, 4:53 pm

BUMP!

Thanks for posting this, very helpful. I am posting this while connected to the VPN for the other sites.

Thanks for this it helps out a lot OP.

lIDivino - August 18, 2015, 7:20 pm

May be a little off topic but sense you can do this for hackforums I assume you could do this for csgo servers also? If so how exactly do you get the csgo ips?

Yes, and I am pretty sure you can get the IP through the console.

maybe use Commview/LANC/Wireshark etc, those seem to work pretty well with xbox etc, and i've heard they work with CSGO

morph - September 2, 2015, 12:51 pm

This is still working and will probably always do.

Carpe Diem - September 3, 2015, 6:27 pm

Awesome tutorial. Thanks a bunch bro!

Chers - October 24, 2015, 5:41 am

Thank you for sharing this is so usefull

Sheeple - October 24, 2015, 7:25 am

Helps if you add the IPs into a .txt file like: 192.0.0.1 141.xx.xx.xx or whatever HF's IPs are, but list all ips they have, and copy/paste them into CMD

Walt Disney™ - October 24, 2015, 7:27 am

I just use proxyfier. Can set what programs run VPN directly. Can disable Google chrome.

I'll be rewriting the tutorial as well as writing a small program to do this automatically in the near future.

morph - February 8, 2017, 3:25 am

Wrote a program to automate this, it's now available for download in the OP.

Nice tutorial,

Thanks for the share buddy.

dunghuongvt - May 20, 2018, 9:50 pm

you only use Zenmate VPN to access it

Sombre - May 24, 2018, 10:13 am

I know this was made a REALLY long time ago. Does this still work though? If so, can you please update the download link, it doesn't seem it work.

You don't need to remove hackforums activity from the VPN. HF allows vpns I believe

Eh. I would just like to be safe. It asks me for verification if I access HF while on my VPN. Better safe than sorry. ?

It still works but you will unfortunately have to do it manually.

Wdym it blocks you from HF? Does HF block you or are you unable to access the site after adding the routes?

After adding the routes and getting on my VPN, I get.

"Your Internet access is blocked Firewall or antivirus software may have blocked the connection."

This still works. I will update the thread with a better program when I can as I, for some reason, cannot edit the thread.

I know I'm new here but to me a tutorial seems redundant. I switched on my vpn and came straight here.

I'm most likely missing something so if I am it would be appreciated to let me know.

So instead of giving a positive comment, you stated something that ends up being quite contradictory to what actually is. And that yes, this tutorial is old but the comments are still new which makes this tutorial still an active post and you replying to me just cements that.

And if all of that wasn't necessary then I apologize, bro. I'm not trying to be a dick.

Actually, I thought hackforums still blocked VPNs. But it seems like it doesn't. Closing the thread :)
