All OMFG's songs are really good, but she only does like 1 track a month and seems to have gone inactive :(

Only thing that's bad and if you put her songs in order it's supposed to be something like "hello Yeah I love you"(read in comments) which is a pretty cool easteregg.

I thought it was a confirmed a guy who makes it but uses someone that they know as it for promo? it's a okay song. Nothing special but super catchy.

Well it has been like war in the EDM world between people. Some says she's a girl and others think she's a fake and it's actually a guy behind the project haha. :)

I'm not sure though :)
