Thread: Cloud Storage With Direct Link

Neos07 - August 15, 2015, 5:42 pm

<http://www.ozibox.com/>

This website provide free 10 GB and you can make the direct link of your upload easily.

Just make an account there.

Upload something.

Click on it.

And copy the direct link like this:

This could be useful for:

You click on the file, when I start to download, you copy the link.

Does this site distribute files?

It's just a cloud storage, I don't think it will distribute the files.

Actually a good website but for google chrome you have to do something else to get the direct link.
The OP told me this via pm so all credits go to him ofcourse.

You download it then go to chrome://downloads and the link should be under the downloaded file.

Appears to be the same with Firefox - can't get the 'File info' box to appear after clicking on it.
Otherwise, good site

I will test it for some days to check if really give you a unique link and work with a downloader.

The only thing that make me suspect that dont give you a unique link is this numbers:

[censored]/DownloadFileHash/B37C47EA3A5A4A5QQWE1550316EWQS/ccsetup508.exe

If that numbers change every time with every download or with every ip that download the file, that web will not work with a downloader, but if that link is always the same link, it will work.

I was searching in all HF hosting to get direct link and no one work for a downloader. The only one interesting i found is this: <http://recovery3intel.co.in/>

I will test first ozibox.

thanks for the links . this is usefull to help me update and use your program !

DamienVC - August 24, 2015, 11:23 pm

Is it a permanent link (as in does it expire after some time?)

Well DirectXEX had a shorter URL too

Yes, after I tested it and make sure that it has constant direct link.

Yakz - August 25, 2015, 1:14 am

Never heard of this site, thanks for sharing. Might be useful some day.

Aese - August 27, 2015, 7:21 am

Good to hear that :).

clw590 - November 28, 2015, 2:57 pm

site shows as malicious in google chrome :/

VirtualMon3y - June 20, 2016, 11:40 am

Nice share.... Kind of don't want to post here to make others aware of it but it deserves some exposure. Will help out some members.

Thanks!

Always a very HQ member.

UnknownMember - August 20, 2016, 11:02 am

Yes finally

i knew that i'll find something for direct URL in your downloader thread since zippyshare and sendspace direct URL changes after some time just made an account there and i hope direct URL will not change after few mins

Thanks bro

IKSector - March 15, 2017, 6:30 pm

Great suggestions, will be trying out these....

MindFreak™ - March 16, 2017, 1:32 am

Good job buddy, That's will help a lot

Visual Freedom - March 16, 2017, 6:03 am

This looks really good. Sadly most cloud services do not offer this.
