Thread: Do you care much for internet privacy?

Autocorrect - August 16, 2015, 2:38 am

I'd like to hear your opinions. Do you care about your internet privacy?

Aiba - August 16, 2015, 2:41 am

While it doesn't infuriate me, it does not please me either.

I would like my internet privacy, but its not one of my top priority. The FBI have much more important things to do than check what episode of My Little Pony im on.

EagleScream - August 16, 2015, 2:42 am

I do not care. I have nothing to hide.

Alison Wonderland - August 16, 2015, 2:43 am

Yes I want my privacy online

I feel its a huge waste of resources to monitor someones online activities

if theyre doing anything worth monitoring you wont be able to peg them for it anyway lets be honest

Not my biggest fear, to not have my privacy on the internet.

But a little is enough.

Matt Bomer™ - August 16, 2015, 2:50 am

Actually I do care as I am into some grey to blackhat activities. So it does matter to me.

Forezza - August 16, 2015, 3:06 am

If the government wants to track me and my goat fetish activities, then that's totally up to them.

Geass - August 16, 2015, 3:30 am

I care, why government need to know what i do or who i am? -.-

webspider - August 16, 2015, 3:33 am

It's not only the government that wants your data. Companies like Microsoft, Google, Facebook, Amazon, etc collect your data and sell it to advertisers

lonex - August 16, 2015, 3:54 am

I've got nothing to hide so I really don't care.

FREEBANDZ - August 16, 2015, 4:02 am

Everyone should care about internet privacy. Nobody should be allowed to see what you're searching for on the internet. To me its invasion of privacy if one does so.

Comments - August 16, 2015, 4:03 am

Internet privacy doesn't matter to me mainly because there's nothing for me to keep secret. Honestly.

Sicarius - August 16, 2015, 4:42 am

It bothers me to a point, I like my privacy and I should be able to be able to be fully anonymous if i want to. At the same time I do not mind companies like Google collecting my data if it means ads etc are more targeted towards me, as a matter of fact I prefer it. I'd rather have adds for new computer gear pop up than have baby products and KY jelly popping up everywhere.

Sure, that's why i'm registered on HF.

I don't really care.

The only things you are gonna see is Porn and HF.

Crainer - August 16, 2015, 6:31 am

I hide as much as i can, but however i think they still collect my data.
